RECEIVER’S OBJECTION TO CLAIM OF THE STEIH TRUST DATED AUGUST 23, 2018

West 4th Holdings, LLC, as Receiver-Manager for the assets and operations of all Defendants (“Receiver”), by and through undersigned counsel, hereby submits its Objection to Claim of The Steih Trust Dated August 23, 2018, and in support thereof, states as follows:

PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

1. On March 25, 2024, this Court issued its Order re: Forthwith Motion for Immediate Appointment of Receiver-Manager Pursuant to C.R.C.P. 121, § 1-15(4), appointing the Receiver as receiver-manager who shall “forthwith take physical possession of, manage, operate, and protect the Collateral and . . . operate the Defendants’ business” (the “Receivership Order”). Consistent with the Receivership Order, the Defendants have turned over to the Receiver “possession of any and all documents, books, records and property which relate to the management, operation, occupancy, insurance, maintenance, or service of the Collateral in any way” and the Receiver has “take[n] charge of the Property assets and all personal property owned by Defendants[.]”

2. On May 7, 2024, the Court approved the Claims Process. The deadline for submission of any claims in this matter was August 12, 2024.

3. Thereafter, on September 12, 2024, the Court set November 11, 2024 as the deadline for parties to object to any Proofs of Claim received by the Receiver.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

BR Brands, LLC Note

4. On March 13, 2020, BR Brands, LLC (“BR Brands”) granted a Promissory Note (the “Note”) to The Steih Trust Dated August 23, 2018 (the “Trust”) in the amount of $30,000.00, at an interest rate of 15% per annum, compounded “on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed and a year of 365 days.”

5. The Note is secured by a March 13, 2020 Security Agreement executed by BR Brands in favor of the Collateral Agent on behalf of all investors, including the Trust. Jonathan Bull is designated as the Collateral Agent under the Security Agreement. The Security Agreement grants a security interest to the Trust “first priority in all right, title and interests of the Company in and to the property described in Attachment 1 hereto, whether now existing or hereafter from time to time acquired (collectively, the “Collateral”).”

6. In relevant part, the Security Agreement further states that “upon the filing of UCC-1 financing statements in the appropriate filing offices, Collateral Agent has a first priority perfected security interest in the Collateral to the extent that a security interest can be perfected by such filing, except for Permitted Liens¹.” Moreover, the Collateral Agent was permitted to file UCC financing statements under Section 6 of the Security Agreement.

7. The Collateral includes “[a]ll right, title, interest, claims and demands” of BR Brands in and to accounts, chattel paper, commercial tort claims, deposit accounts and cash, documents, equipment, general intangibles, goods, instruments, intellectual property, inventory, investment property, letter-of-credit rights, and to the extent not otherwise included, “all Proceeds and products of any and all of the foregoing, and all accessions to, substitutions and replacements for, and rents and profits of each of the foregoing.”

8. The law governing the Note, Purchase Agreement and the Security Agreement is the law of New York, except to the extent that the collateral is located elsewhere, such that the local Uniform Commercial Code (“UCC”) will generally control security interests.

9. As part of the Proof of Claim, the Trust did not submit any documents reflecting a UCC financing statement filed on behalf of the Collateral Agent or the Trust as to BR Brands. However, a recent search of the Delaware Secretary of State’s UCC financing statement records for BR Brands revealed a June 19, 2020 financing statement filed by Jonathan Bull as Collateral Agent as secured by BR Brands. A search of the Colorado Secretary of State page does not reflect any such UCC financing statements, lapsed or otherwise.

Contribution and Exchange Agreement

10. Eventually, on April 21, 2020, BR Brands and Dixie Brands, Inc. (“Dixie”) entered into the Contribution and Exchange Agreement (the “Contribution Agreement”), whereby Dixie purchased the assets and interests of BR Brands (also referred to as “BRB”) in exchange for issuance of certain payment shares of Dixie to BRB. Additionally, BRB, under Section 2.01 of the Contribution Agreement, transferred certain liabilities to Dixie.

11. Specifically, BR Brands sold “Contributed Assets” and “Contributed Interests” to Dixie.

12. Additionally, Dixie also agreed to assume “Contributed Liabilities” of BR Brands as part of the transaction. Notably, the “Contributed Liabilities” transferred to Dixie under Section 2.01 of the Contribution Agreement included “Senior Secured Convertible Promissory Notes, dated as of March 13, 2020, issued by BRB in an aggregate principal amount equal to $2,713,545.00,” which likely includes the Note to the Trust. There is no mention of whether Dixie expressly assumed the obligations under the Security Agreement as well.

13. While the Contribution Agreement is silent as to whether the Note, among others, retain their secured status as a result of the transaction under the Contribution Agreement, BR Brands did represent and warrant under Section 6.02(d) that it “owns the Contributed Interests and the Contributed Assets free and clear of any Liens, mortgages and encumbrances of any kind.”

14. Eventually, Dixie became Bellrock Brands, Inc. (“Bellrock”).

Security Interest

15. There are two questions to be asked. First, is the Collateral Agent’s lien still effective as against the BR Brands Collateral sold to Dixie/Bellrock under the UCC or other applicable law? Second, did Dixie/Bellrock become responsible for the Security Agreement, such that it attached to Dixie/Bellrock’s collateral acquired after-the-fact?

a. Lien Against the Collateral

16. Generally, “while a debtor is located in a jurisdiction, the local law of that jurisdiction governs perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of a security interest in collateral.” C.R.S. § 4-9-301(1); Del. Code Ann. Tit. 6, § 9-301(1). There are certain exceptions—for example, perfection and priority of a possessory security interest in collateral is governed by the law of the jurisdiction where that collateral is located. C.R.S. § 4-9-301(2); Del. Code Ann. Tit. 6, § 9-301(2).

17. In both Colorado and Delaware, “[a] debtor that is an organization and has more than one place of business is located at its chief executive office.” See C.R.S. § 4-9-307(b)(3); Del. Code Ann. Tit. 6, § 9-307(b)(3).

18. Upon information and belief, at the time the Contribution Agreement became effective, Dixie (and later, Bellrock) was an Ontario, Canada corporation and its chief executive office was located in Denver, Colorado. Accordingly, the Colorado UCC generally governs the perfection of the Security Agreement liens and interests in the Collateral, to the extent they are nonpossessory interests.

19. Except as otherwise provide in C.R.S. § 4-2-403(2), “[a] security interest or agricultural lien continues in collateral notwithstanding sale, lease, license, exchange, or other disposition thereof unless the secured party authorized the disposition free of the security interest or agricultural lien; and a security interest attaches to any identifiable proceeds of collateral.” C.R.S. § 4-9-315(a) (emphasis added). There are certain exceptions. See C.R.S. §§ 4-9-320 and 4-9-321 (goods and general intangibles); C.R.S. § 4-9-330 (chattel paper and instruments); C.R.S. § 4-9-331 (negotiable instruments, negotiable documents, and securities); C.R.S. § 4-9-332 (funds from deposit account).

20. We have seen no evidence that suggests that the Collateral Agent consented to sale or transfer of the Collateral to Dixie/Bellrock free and clear of any liens. Accordingly, and generally, it appears that the Collateral Agent lien remained attached to the Collateral at the time of the transaction between BR Brands and Dixie.

21. “A filed financing statement remains effective with respect to collateral that is sold, exchanged, leased, licensed, or otherwise disposed of and in which a security interest or agricultural lien continues, even if the secured party knows of or consents to the disposition.” C.R.S. § 4-9-507.

22. Here, Mr. Bull’s financing statement was initially and properly filed in Delaware, as BR Brands, a Delaware company, was located there for purposes of the UCC. There is no question that the security interest was perfected as to BR Brands and the Collateral upon the filing in Delaware.

23. However, the financing statement filed in Delaware would only remain effective as to the Collateral until the earliest of (1) the time perfection would have created under the law of that jurisdiction, (2) the expiration of four months after a change of a debtor’s location to another jurisdiction; or (3) the expiration of one year after a transfer of collateral to a person that thereby becomes a debtor and is located in another jurisdiction. C.R.S. § 4-9-316(a).

24. Because Dixie/Bellrock was located in Colorado, to further perfect the security interest in the Collateral transferred to Dixie/Bellrock, Mr. Bull was generally required to perfect the lien under the laws of Colorado by filing a financing statement as to the Collateral with the Colorado Secretary of State within one year of the transfer of the Collateral. See C.R.S. § 4-9-310(a) (with certain exceptions, “a financing statement must be filed to perfect all security interests and agricultural liens.”); C.R.S. § 4-9-501(a) (if Colorado law governs perfection of a security interest or agricultural lien, the office in which to file a financing statement to perfect the security interest or agricultural lien, if not real property, is the office of the secretary of state).

25. Upon search of the Colorado Secretary of State, Mr. Bull did not file a financing statement as to either BR Brands or Dixie/Bellrock—as such, the security interest against the Collateral is no longer perfected, such that the Collateral no longer secures the obligations under the BR Brands notes.

b. Responsibility for Security Agreement

26. Notwithstanding the disposition of the Collateral, there is also the question of whether Dixie/Bellrock, by virtue of assuming liability for the BR Brands noteholders’ debt, also assumed responsibility for the Security Agreement itself, such that its assets (the Collateral and its own assets) were subject to the same.

27. Notably, the Security Agreement contains the following non-assignment clause:

(e) Assignments. This Security Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of Collateral Agent and [BR Brands] and their respective successors and assigns; provided, however, that no rights, obligations or interests hereunder may be sold, assigned or delegated by (i) [BR Brands] without the prior written consent of the Collateral Agent or (ii) the Collateral Agent without the prior written consent of [BR Brands], in each case, which consent may be withheld in the Collateral Agent’s or [BR Brands] sole discretion, as the case may be.

(emphasis in original).

28. It would appear, therefore, that the obligations under the Security Agreement could not have been assigned to Dixie without express approval of the Collateral Agent (Mr. Bull). The Contribution Agreement is silent in this regard; however, we have received no documentation showing consent to assignment of the Security Agreement to Dixie/Bellrock.

29. Notwithstanding the limited non-assignment clause of the Security Agreement, it is also important to evaluate whether, under other applicable law, by virtue of the transfer of assets and liabilities to Dixie, Dixie also became bound by the Security Agreement.

30. Again, because Dixie/Bellrock had its principal office in Denver, Colorado, we must generally look to the Colorado UCC to determine whether the Security Agreement became an obligation of Dixie/Bellrock. See C.R.S. § 4-9-301(1); Del. Code Ann. Tit. 6, § 9-301(1).

31. Under the Colorado UCC, a person becomes bound as debtor by a security agreement entered into by another person if, by operation of law other than in the UCC or by contract:

- (1) The security agreement becomes effective to create a security interest in the person's property; or
- (2) The person becomes generally obligated for the obligations of the other person, including the obligation secured under the security agreement, and acquires or succeeds to all or substantially all of the assets of the other person.

C.R.S. § 4-9-203(d)(2); Del. Code Ann. Tit. 6, § 9-203(d)(2).

32. This question is ultimately purely academic, however. While Dixie/Bellrock may ultimately be responsible for the Security Agreement due to successor liability or the provisions of the UCC, the ultimate question is whether the obligations created by the Security Agreement remain perfected as against Dixie/Bellrock, and therefore, secured.

33. Under C.R.S. § 4-9-316(i), if a financing statement naming an original debtor is filed pursuant to the law of the jurisdiction designated in section 4-9-301 (1) or 4-9-305 (c) and the new debtor is located in another jurisdiction, the following rules apply:

- (1) The financing statement is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the new debtor before, and within four months after, the new debtor becomes bound under section 4-9-203 (d) if the financing statement would have been effective to perfect a security interest in the collateral had the collateral been acquired by the original debtor.
- (2) A security interest that is perfected by the financing statement and that becomes perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier of the time the financing statement would have become ineffective under the law of the jurisdiction designated in section 4-9-301 (1) or 4-9-305 (c) or the expiration of the four-month period remains perfected thereafter. A security interest that is perfected by the financing statement but that does not become perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier time or event becomes unperfected and is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.

34. Colorado has an explicit example in its Official Comment No. 8 to Section 4-9-316 that addresses our exact situation:

Example 10: Debtor, a Pennsylvania corporation, grants to Lender a security interest in Debtor's existing and after-acquired inventory.

Lender perfects the security interest by filing a proper financing statement in Pennsylvania on January 2, 2014. On March 31, 2014, Debtor merges into Survivor, a Delaware corporation. Because Survivor is located in Delaware, Delaware law governs perfection of a security interest in Survivor's inventory. See Sections 9-301, 9-307. Under Delaware's Section 9-316(a), Lender's security interest in the inventory that Survivor acquired from Debtor remains perfected for one year after the transfer. See Comment 2. By virtue of the merger, Survivor becomes bound as debtor by Debtor's security agreement. See Section 9-203(d). As a consequence, Lender's security interest attaches to all of Survivor's inventory under Section 9-203, and Lender's collateral now includes inventory in which Debtor never had an interest. The financing statement filed in Pennsylvania against Debtor is effective under Delaware's Section 9-316(i) to perfect Lender's security interest in inventory that Survivor acquired before, and within the four months after, becoming bound as debtor by Debtor's security agreement. This is because the financing statement filed in Pennsylvania would have been effective to perfect Lender's security interest in this collateral had Debtor, rather than Survivor, acquired it.

If the financing statement is effective, Lender's security interest in the collateral that Survivor acquired before, and within four months after, Survivor became bound as debtor will be perfected upon attachment. It will remain perfected if, before the expiration of the four-month period, the security interest is perfected under Delaware law. Otherwise, the security interest will become unperfected at the end of the four-month period and will be deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser for value.

35. BR Brands is located in Delaware. Dixie/Bellrock is located in another jurisdiction—Colorado. There is no indication that Mr. Bull or the Trust filed a financing statement in Colorado as to Dixie/Bellrock. Accordingly, because Mr. Bull and/or the Trust did not perfect the security interest in Colorado within four months after the aforementioned transaction by filing a financing statement with the Colorado Secretary of State (notwithstanding the question of whether that transaction was sufficient to bind Dixie/Bellrock to the Security Agreement), it is now unperfected.

36. Accordingly, Receiver takes the position that Dixie/Bellrock did not assume liability for the Security Agreement, and, even if so, there is no perfected security interest in the Dixie/Bellrock collateral, unless additional documentation shows the contrary to be true.

37. To the extent there have been any attempts to file UCC financing statements in Colorado or Delaware post-Receivership, the Receiver also takes the position that such filings are null and void.

38. This is not to say that there is no perfected security interest in remaining BR Brands collateral, which, upon information and belief, are simply shares in Bellrock. Thus, the Trust may be secured by those shares held by BR Brands—however, it is not secured by any of Bellrock’s collateral.

OBJECTION

39. The Trust submitted Proof of Claim No. 79² on June 18, 2024, as a secured claim against “BR Brands, LLC” arising out of the Note, Warrant Purchase Agreement and Security Agreement in the amount of $52,925.26.

40. The Proof of Claim includes $30,000.00 in outstanding principal and $22,925.26 in interest at a rate of 15% per annum, compounded annually.

41. The Trust has submitted corresponding documentation in the form of a copy of the Note and a corresponding Note and Warrant Purchase Agreement (also dated March 13, 2020), as well as an interest table. Documentation also includes correspondence from Bellrock Brands with respect to the Note and amounts owed thereunder, wire transfer documentation showing payments of $30,000.00 to BR Brands, Capital Call request documentation, Private Placement Memorandum, and a signature page for the Security Agreement. The claim is designated as secured.

42. However, as discussed above, the BR Brands Notes, such as that of the Trust, are unsecured, as the Security Agreement with respect to the same is no longer perfected. The Receiver therefore objects to the designation of Proof of Claim No. 79 as secured, and requests a determination that this Claim is unsecured.

43. The Receiver has no objection to the remainder of the Proof of Claim (i.e., principal and interest), and approves the remainder as made against Bellrock.

44. Receiver reserves the right to object to the Trust’s Proof of Claim on any further grounds that may apply, upon receipt of additional information or otherwise.

45. In connection with this Objection, Receiver has given notice directly to the Trust.

WHEREFORE, Receiver requests entry of a court order disallowing the Trust’s Proof of Claim No. 79 as a secured claim, and for such further relief as the Court deems appropriate.

DATED this 25th day of October 2024.

² As identified on Receiver’s Notice of Filing of Proofs of Claim and Request to Set Objection Deadline, filed on August 16, 2024.

Respectfully Submitted,

COURT USE ONLY

Case Number: 2024CV30763

Division: 466

PLAINTIFFS' FIRST OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO CLAIMS

Plaintiffs Ross Berman, Jason H. Karp, IMJ I LLC, Rachel Farber Revocable Trust, Stephen Farber Revocable Trust, and Red Cloud Capital, LLC (each, a Plaintiff and, collectively, “Plaintiffs”) hereby submit their omnibus objection (“Objection”) to Claims (as defined below). In support of the Objection, the Plaintiffs state:

Background

1. On March 21, 2024, Plaintiffs filed their Forthwith Motion for Immediate Appointment of Receiver-Manager (“Receivership Motion”). On March 25, 2024, the Court issued its Order Regarding Forthwith Motion for Immediate Appointment of Receiver-Manager (the “Receivership Order”).¹

2. On May 7, 2024, Receiver filed his Motion to Establish Claims Administration Procedure and to Set Claims Bar Date (the “Bar Date Motion”). On May 13, 2024, the Court issued its Order Granting Receiver’s Motion to Establish Claims Administration Procedure and to Set Claims Bar Date (“Bar Date Order”).

3. The Bar Date Motion required that all Claimants file their Poofs of Claim (the “Claims”) by August 9, 2023 (the “Bar Date”).

4. Prior to the Bar Date, 88 Claimants timely filed their Proofs of Claim (“PoC”). A total of 69 Claimants assert secured Claims against the Receivership Entities. As set forth in Exhibit C, only 7 financing statements have been filed against Receivership Entities.

5. To date, the Receivership Entities have received nearly one hundred Claims. Plaintiffs have gone through certain claims—those that assert a security interest in Receivership Entities—to determine whether or not these claims are valid and superior to Plaintiffs’ Claims.

Argument

The Bar Date Motion and Bar Date Order approved by the Court govern the Claims procedure in this matter. The Bar Date Order affords all parties-in-interest the opportunity to “[o]bject to the validity, extent, security, and priority of any claim.” See Bar Date Order, at p. 2. Based on that review, certain claims are not valid and are subordinate to Plaintiffs’ Claims. Accordingly, Plaintiffs seek an order that (1) reclassifies Claim No. 36, an unsecured claim, (2) consolidates the Claims in Exhibit A (the “Duplicate Claims”) into a single claim against Receivership Entities, and (3) deems the Claims set forth in Exhibits B (the “Subordinate Claims”) subordinate to Plaintiffs’ Claims.

As an initial matter, Plaintiffs’ position is that it, along with the other 2021 noteholders, as identified in the complaint, along with High Street Capital Partners, have a superior priority and claims over any other claimants (both secured and unsecured) for the reasons further detailed in Plaintiffs’ complaint.

Plaintiffs also provides the following specific objections.

A. Claim No. 36.

Claimant No. 36 should be barred from asserting a security interest in Receivership Entities and be reclassified as an unsecured Claim. Claimant No. 36 does not specify the nature of its interest in Receivership Entities. The basis for Claim No. 36 is a promissory note dated May 15, 2020. Claim No. 36 does not assert to be secured, and no financing statement was filed in connection with this Claim. Therefore, Claim No. 36 should be reclassified as an unsecured Claim for the claims administration process.

B. Claims Set forth on Exhibit A should be reconciled and consolidated to a single claim against Receivership Entities.

From Plaintiffs' review, the Claims set forth in Exhibit A stem from the same instrument and relate to the same underlying debt. Disallowing the duplicate Claims will prevent Claimants from receiving multiple recoveries for a single Claim. Accordingly, Plaintiffs respectfully request that a single Claim from the duplicate Claims set forth on Exhibit A survive and all other duplicate claims be. Only three Claimants filed duplicate claims. In connection with these Duplicate Claims, and as set forth in greater detail in Exhibit A, Plaintiffs request that: Claims No. 25 and 26 be consolidated to Claim No. 25; Claim Nos. 55-63 be consolidated into Claim 55; Claim Nos. 67, 69-75, be consolidated to Claim No. 67; and therefore disallowing and expunging for all purposes Claim Nos. 26, 56-63, and 69-75.

C. Claims set forth in Exhibit B should be deemed subordinate to Plaintiff's Claims.

Generally, a security interest is effective according to its terms between the parties, against purchasers of the collateral, and against creditors. Section 4-9-201, C.R.S. The filing of a financing statement is required in order to perfect the security interest. Colo. Rev. Stat. § 4-9-310(a). An unperfected security interest is subordinate to a perfected interest. Young v. Golden State Bank, 39 Colo. App. 45, 49 (1977). Perfected interest, in turn, take priority according to when they are filed. Denver Tec Bank v. Federal Deposit Ins. Corp., 843 P.2d 129 (Col. App. 1992)

As set forth in Exhibit C, only 8 claimed secured creditors have filed financing statements. All Claims set forth in Exhibit B, with the exception of Claim Nos. 25, 26²(which Plaintiffs seek to consolidate to Claim to Claim No. 25), and Claim No. 53, are Claims that assert a secured claim, but are unperfected for failure to file a financing statement and are, thus, subordinate to Plaintiffs'

² Claim Nos. 25, 26² (which Plaintiffs seek to consolidate to Claim to Claim No. 25), is further deficient because Claimant did not file a financing Statement in Delaware.

Claims. Claims No. 25, 26, and 53, filed financing statements, June 26, 2023 and August 26, 22, respectively, after Plaintiffs' financing statements, which were filed April 30, 2021. The financing statement corresponding to Claim Nos. 55-63 (which Plaintiffs seek to consolidated into Claim No. 55), also post-dates Plaintiffs' Claims, because it was filed March 22, 2024. Therefore, Claim Nos. 25, 26, 53, and 55-63, are all subordinate to Plaintiffs' Claims.

1. Claims 7-12 (the "BR Ventures Claims") should be deemed subordinate to Plaintiff's Claims.

BR Ventures submitted six Proofs of Claim Nos. 7-12 on August 6, 2024, as secured claims against Bellrock and "all additional defendants and all subsidiary or affiliated entities" arising out of the Note and Security Agreement. The BR Venture Claims are unsecured because as part of the Proof of Claim, BR Ventures did not submit any documents reflecting a UCC financing statement filed on behalf of the Collateral Agent or BR Ventures as to BR Brands. A search of the Delaware Secretary of State's UCC financing statement records for BR Brands revealed a June 19, 2020 financing statement filed by Jonathan Bull as Collateral Agent as secured by BR Brands. A search of the Colorado Secretary of State page does not reflect any such UCC financing statements, lapsed or otherwise.

In both Colorado and Delaware, "[a] debtor that is an organization and has more than one place of business is located at its chief executive office." See C.R.S. § 4-9-307(b)(3); Del. Code Ann. Tit. 6, § 9-307(b)(3). In Colorado, "A filed financing statement remains effective with respect to collateral that is sold, exchanged, leased, licensed, or otherwise disposed of and in which a security interest or agricultural lien continues, even if the secured party knows of or consents to the disposition." C.R.S. § 4-9-507.

Furthermore, the financing statement filed in Delaware would only remain effective as to the Collateral until the earliest of (1) the time perfection would have created under the law of that jurisdiction, (2) the expiration of four months after a change of a debtor's location to another jurisdiction; or (3) the expiration of one year after a transfer of collateral to a person that thereby becomes a debtor and is located in another jurisdiction. C.R.S. § 4-9-316(a).

Because Dixie/Bellrock was located in Colorado, to further perfect the security interest in the Collateral transferred to Dixie/Bellrock, Mr. Bull was generally required to perfect the lien under the laws of Colorado by filing a financing statement as to the Collateral with the Colorado Secretary of State within one year of the transfer of the Collateral. See C.R.S. § 4-9-310(a) (with certain exceptions, “a financing statement must be filed to perfect all security interests and agricultural liens.”); C.R.S. § 4-9-501(a) (if Colorado law governs perfection of a security interest or agricultural lien, the office in which to file a financing statement to perfect the security interest or agricultural lien, if not real property, is the office of the secretary of state).

Upon search of the Colorado Secretary of State, Mr. Bull did not file a financing statement as to either BR Brands or Dixie/Bellrock—as such, the security interest against the Collateral is no longer perfected, such that the Collateral no longer secures the obligations under the BR Brands notes; and thus, the BR Ventures Claims are subordinate to Plaintiffs' Claims.

Reservation of Rights

Nothing contained herein shall operate as a waiver of any of the Plaintiffs' claims, rights, objections, or remedies as to any party or claim. Plaintiffs hereby reserves any and all rights it may have with respect to any Claim addressed herein or otherwise, and any agreements related thereto, and any collateral, and the relief requested herein. Without limiting the foregoing, Plaintiffs reserves the right to seek to modify the relief requested herein as may be necessary to facilitate the Receivership and its operations, or as may otherwise be necessary to comply with the requirements of any order entered in this Case.

Moreover, nothing contained herein, is intended or shall be construed as: (i) an admission as to the validity, priority, or enforceability of Plaintiffs' Claims against the Receivership Entities and/or their lien against the Receivership Estate, (ii) a waiver of the Plaintiffs' rights to dispute any claim on any grounds, (iii) a promise to pay any claim; or (iv) an approval or assumption of any agreement, contract.

Likewise, if this Court grants any payment, such payment should not be construed as an admission to the validity of any claim or a waiver of the Plaintiff's rights to dispute such claim subsequently.

Case Number: 2024CV30763

Division: 466

INTERVENORS' OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO ALL OTHER CLAIMS

Intervenor Trevor Gallup, by and through his undersigned counsel, and also on behalf of Intervenor Lynn Honderd, submit Intervenor's omnibus objection to all other claims submitted to the Receiver in this action, and as grounds, state as follows:

1. On March 25, 2024, this Court issued its Order re: Forthwith Motion for Immediate Appointment of Receiver-Manager Pursuant to C.R.C.P. 121(c), § 1-15(4), appointing West 4th Holdings, LLC as the Receiver who shall "forthwith take physical possession of, manage, operate, and protect the Collateral and . . . operate the Defendants' business" (the "Receivership Order").

2. Since its appointment, Receiver has allegedly "take[n] charge of the Property assets and all personal property owned by Defendants[.]"

3. On May 7, 2024, the Court approved the Claims Process. The deadline for submission of any claims in this matter was August 12, 2024. The Court later set November 11, 2024 as the claims objection deadline.

4. On June 14, 2024, the Court granted Intervenor's Motion to Intervene, subject to the limitations set forth in the Stipulated Discovery and Scheduling Order entered on the same day.

5. Under the Stipulated Discovery and Scheduling Order:

Intervenors agree to submit a claim pursuant to that [Claims Administration Procedure] Order. Intervenor, however, challenge the priority of the Plaintiffs' claims based on an alleged violation of Colorado's Fraudulent Transfer act as well as seek rescission from the Defendants based on claims of duress or voiding the agreements with Defendants based on illusory and unconscionable theories. Because the composition of the assets of the estate of the Defendants in receivership may be affected by an adjudication of these three issues and claims raised Intervenor, and certain discovery is needed to resolve those three issues, it is agreed that the Intervenor are granted intervention to pursue discovery and claims based on those three issues and claims. Those three claims are set forth in Intervenor's joint complaint as claims 1, 2, and 8 ("Intervention Claims").

6. The hearing on Intervenor's claims is currently set for a five (5) day bench trial beginning on January 27, 2025.

7. On June 24, 2024, Intervenor filed their Amended Complaint in Intervention and Third-Party Complaint in order to assert fraudulent transfer claims against other secured creditors of the Defendants on the same basis as their fraudulent transfer claims asserted against the Plaintiffs, namely, that the security interests granted in the Defendant Companies were fraudulently conveyed and were subject to being set aside. See C.R.S. § 38-8-101 et seq., Colorado Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act ("CUFTA").

8. However, on October 10, 2024, the Court struck the Amended Complaint in Intervention and Third-Party Complaint on the basis that the Intervenor were not allowed to amend their Complaint or to assert any claims against any new parties outside the scope of the Stipulated Discovery and Scheduling Order.

9. Intervenor have also moved to disqualify West 4th Holdings, LLC, as Receiver, asserting that West 4th Holdings should be removed from its role as Receiver because of its deep entanglement with both the Plaintiffs and the Defendants. This Court held an evidentiary hearing on disqualification but has not yet issued its ruling.

10. Notwithstanding their pending motion to disqualify the current Receiver, but in accordance with the Stipulated Discovery and Case Management Order, Intervenor timely submitted claims in the Claims Process to the Receiver.

11. Approximately 88 total claimants submitted nearly 100 total claims to the Receiver, with most of the claimants alleging overlapping secured interests in all or substantially all of the Defendants' property. It appears that all of these purported secured interests were granted after Intervenor's sale of their ownership of the Mary's Brands.

Intervenors' Objection to Plaintiffs' Claims

12. Plaintiffs filed an omnibus objection that asserts Plaintiffs and High Street Capital Partners have a superior priority to all other claimants, secured or unsecured.

13. Intervenors join in all of Plaintiffs' objections, except the objections to Intervenors' claims.

14. Intervenors object to each of Plaintiffs' submitted claims on the basis that their secured interests are subject to being set aside as fraudulent transfers under CUFTA at the hearing to be held by this Court commencing January 27, 2025.

Effect of Receiver's Objections

15. Receiver filed objections to multiple claimants who alleged secured and unsecured interests in the Defendants.

16. Intervenors note that Receiver's objections appear to be intended to further the interests of the Plaintiffs by filing only objections that would have the effect of allowing certain Plaintiffs to maintain their purported superior priority over all other claimants. Intervenors assert that the nature and scope of the objections Receiver has chosen to make indicate that Receiver is not acting impartially in the claims process.

17. Intervenors nonetheless join in all of Receivers' objections, except the objections to Intervenors' claims.

Intervenors' Objection to Receiver's Premature Determination of the Defendants' Assets and Claimants' Interests

18. Within Receivers' objections to the secured claims, Receiver repeatedly states that they are approved as unsecured against BellRock. See, e.g., as illustrative examples, Receiver's Amended Objection to Claim of Holly Keller, ¶ 46, and Receiver's Objection to Claim of San Marco EPC Fund, LLC, ¶ 43 (both stating "The Receiver has no objection to the remainder of the Proof of Claim (i.e., principal and interest), and approves the remainder as made against Bellrock.”).

19. Pursuant to the Stipulated Discovery and Case Management Order, as well as the Receiver’s representations to the Court, the Receiver cannot approve any claims, whether secured or unsecured, until after this Court holds its hearing and issues its determination on the Intervenor’s claims.

20. The Receiver cannot determine which property and assets belong to the Defendants until after a ruling on the Intervenor’s claims. Intervenor’s claims of duress and of void contract affect the composition of the entire receivership estate. Intervenor’s assert that the sale of their ownership interests, including the intellectual property of the Mary’s Brands, is void or voidable as a result of duress and/or the illusory nature of the terms of the agreements that Intervenor were forced to enter into. See Vail/Arrowhead, Inc. v. Dist. Court for the Fifth Judicial Dist., Eagle Cnty., 954 P.2d 608, 612 (Colo. 1998) (“A contract is voidable on the grounds of duress if a party’s manifestation of assent is induced by an improper threat that leaves no reasonable alternative.”).

21. Additionally, the Receiver cannot make a determination of the secured or unsecured status or priority of Plaintiffs’ claims until after the Court’s determination of Intervenor’s CUFTA claim against the Plaintiffs.

Intervenor’s Objections to All Other Purported Secured Claims Must be Determined Through Evidentiary Hearings

22. Intervenor also object to all secured claims asserted by all other claimants based on fraudulent transfer of their respective security interests in violation of CUFTA.

23. Each of the purported secured creditors entered into their respective security agreements with either actual knowledge or constructive knowledge of the terms of Intervenor’s respective Notes and Agreements with the Defendant Companies.

24. Each of the purported secured creditors took their security interests knowing that Defendant Companies were in default of the Honderd and Gallup Notes and Agreements.

25. Defendants transferred security interests in favor of each of the purported secured creditors at various times after the Intervenors' Notes and Agreements, thereby encumbering the Defendant Companies and all of their assets and intellectual property.

26. Intervenors at all relevant times were creditors of the Defendant Companies as defined by C.R.S. § 38-8-102(5).

27. Defendant Companies were insolvent or became insolvent at the time of the execution of each of these security interests, as defined by C.R.S. § 38-8-103.

28. Most or all of the secured interests were granted to affiliates or insiders of the Defendants.

29. Defendants transferred these security interests and encumbered the Defendant Companies with the actual intent to hinder, delay, and defraud Intervenors.

30. Defendants encumbered the Defendant Companies without receiving reasonably equivalent value for the security interest transferred.

31. At the time of the transfer of the security interests, the Defendants knew that the Gallup Note and the Honderd Note were in default and fully due and payable. At that time, Defendants also knew they could not enforce the subordination provisions of the Honderd and Gallup Notes and they had no right to take on purportedly senior secured debt.

32. Because Intervenors were the founders of Mary's Brands and the source of all its assets and intellectual property, these creditors also knew that the collateral underlying the security interest in Defendant Companies was at risk due to the material breach of the Notes.

33. Each of the purported secured creditors' secured interests constitutes a fraudulent transfer and should be set aside and avoided per C.R.S. Section 38-8-108(1)(a).

34. Pursuant to the Order Granting Receiver's Motion to Establish Claims Administration Procedure and to Set Claims Bar Date, upon filing of an objection by any party in interest to the validity, extent, security, or priority of any claim, the Court must "hold a short evidentiary hearing to rule on all Objections" and make a determination as to each and every purported secured creditor as to whether its secured interest is subject to being set aside as a fraudulent transfer.

35. Intervenors therefore request evidentiary hearings on the validity, extent, security, and priority of all other alleged secured claimants.

36. Intervenors expressly retain their rights, including but not limited to their right to separately pursue litigation against insiders and purported creditors against whom Intervenors may have claims.

SECURED CREDITOR JAMES A. HARVEY’S OBJECTION TO THE STEIH TRUST DATED AUGUST 23, 2018, PROOF OF CLAIM

Secured Creditor, James A. Harvey, by and through undersigned counsel, hereby submits his Objection to the Claim of the Steih Trust Dated August 23, 2018, submitted to the Receiver and designated Claim 79 in the above matter, and in support thereof, states as follows:

1. James A. Harvey hereby adopts fully and incorporates by reference the entirety of the Procedural and Factual Background set forth in the Receiver's Objection to the Claim of the Steih Trust Dated August 23, 2018 ("Trust"), designated by Receiver as Claim 79, as though fully stated herein.

2. As a result of the Trust's interest failure to file a financial statement as described in the Receiver's Objections incorporated herein by reference, or its security interest otherwise becoming unperfected, the Trust's interest is now entirely unsecured and the entirety of the obligation owed by Defendants to James A. Harvey, a perfected secured creditor, is superior to its Claim against Defendants.

3. The Trust submitted its Proof of Claim to the Receiver as a secured claim, asserting that it had a perfected security interest rendering it a secured creditor with priority over other secured creditors, including James A. Havey. James A. Harvey submits that to the extent that the Trust was ever a secured creditor, or perfected secured creditor, it no longer enjoys secured creditor status and is an unsecured creditor of the Defendant. As such, its Claim is subordinate to perfected secured creditor James A. Harvey.

4. James A. Harvey therefore objects to the Claim of the Trust as a secured interest and requests that the Court find that the Claim of the Trust is unsecured and is entirely subordinate to the obligations owed by Defendants to James A. Harvey as a perfected secured creditor and should be ordered disallowed.

5. James A. Harvey hereby relies upon and fully incorporates by reference, all objections and the legal and factual basis set forth by the Receiver asserted in its Objections to the Claim of the Trust, filed on October 25, 2024, as though the same were fully stated herein.

6. James A. Harvey reserves the right to object to the entitlement or reasonableness of any attorneys' fees included as a part of the Claim as well as raise further objections as additional information becomes available, including as to the priority of distribution among secured creditors should the claimant be declared a secured creditor.

WHEREFORE, secured creditor James A. Harvey requests entry of a court order disallowing the Steih Trust's Proofs of Claim No. 79, submitted on or about June 18, 2024, as a secured claim and for such further relief as the Court deems appropriate.

DATED this 11th day of November 2024.
